

THE MPC CHARACTER TRAIT FOR MAY – JUNE, 2012 IS 'FAIR GO'

If we all work hard at giving others a Fair Go then everything we are involved in will work better for all participants and, hopefully, motivate others to do the same for our mutual benefit. Giving others a Fair Go is;

- Viewing everyone as equal and having the same rights to enjoy things, places and people. (Schulman & Mekler, 1994)
- Treating people equally; making decisions without favouritism or prejudice; being open-minded and impartial; getting the facts before blaming or accusing another. (Character Counts, 1996)

MPC BUSINESS LUNCHEON – 27 JULY 2012

MPC's Guest Speaker, for the MPC Business Breakfast to be held at Casavini Restaurant on Friday 27 July 2012, is John Deeks. Put this important date in your diary now!

John Deeks has been part of the Australian media for 35 years, the past 30 as the voice of the Seven Network.

Every day across Australia you hear John Deeks, a versatile trusted corporate Master of Ceremonies, National Television presenter and leading Voice over artist.

Make up a table of 10 and book your seats with Liz.
Payment of $25 per person with your booking please.

John Deeks

MEMBERS OF OUR COMMUNITY DEMONSTRATE GOOD CHARACTER TRAITS

Irrespective of whether it is your cup of tea, or not, the fact that community members volunteer to put on a Passion Play at Easter is an example of promoting good character. Likewise, the efforts and availability of our SES helping community members in trouble is another example of good character in the community.

People that visit those shut in, such as the elderly and disabled, are further examples of good character at work. Consider what you have seen or experienced, it is good to be motivated by it.

Don't forget that organizations and individuals can propose worthy members of the community for an MPC award. For information contact MPC Secretary, Liz Guiver.